The Class of 2005 proudly stands in the formation of their graduating year. Congratulations to the Seniors of 2005! We did it!

Bottom Left: The "Hood -Rich North." These Weston Seniors represent the North side of Weston!

Bottom Right: The "Dirty South." These Weston Seniors represent the South side of Weston!

On Stage

As we near commencement, the Class of 2005 will always remember the memories that have been made. Our High School Years are times of joy and youth; as we enter the world we leave behind Weston and all that it has taught us. We are ready to begin our new lives as independent individuals. Now and forever we will always be a part of the Class of 2005 and the...

Spotlight is finally on US!

Stephanie Wake is getting dirty in the soap suds of the community car wash. Not only did we have fun, but we made money! This grade event was a great way to get involved and contribute to the town. Keep on scrubbing, Steph!

Meagan Hajjar, Liz Elfman, Liz Ballard, Hillary Goldy, Carla Petersen, and Deirdre O'Mara are excited to be spending the day at six Flags for a Freshman field trip. A warm sunny day with friends at an amusment park was a nice conclusion to freshman year!

Grade Activities

Rachel Gordon and Stephani Abraham are best buddies. Their long lasting friendship will continue from the doors of Weston High to wherever their lives may take them.

Stephanie Wake and Rachel Gordon continue their legacy of active involvement and help out at Weston's Spring Fling. What is a better way to entertain the town than a moon-bounce, spin-art, and bake sales on the town green.

Kerri Lynne Thomas and Ben Megargel have an amazing friendship and can always count on each other! They are glad to have spent all of high school together and will cherish the many memories formed.

Rhianon Liu, Meredith Bryden, and Matt Karasch are glad to be helping out at the Special Olympics, a special-needs basketball tournament where Weston seniors continue the tradition of helping out annually.

Dylan Wood demonstrates some community spirit at the car wash. He is glad to be giving back to his community. Keep washing Dylan!

Jessica Ackerman, Carla Petersen, Elaine Tran, Deirdre O'Mara, and Liz Ballard are cheer leaders for the Special Olympics. They root for their respective basketball teams and hope for victory!

The class of 2005 in their sophomore year showed some school spirit and dressed up for the Halloween haunted house. What a great way to scare the town's little kids than in a torture chamber of doom. Scary costumes, guys, looking great!

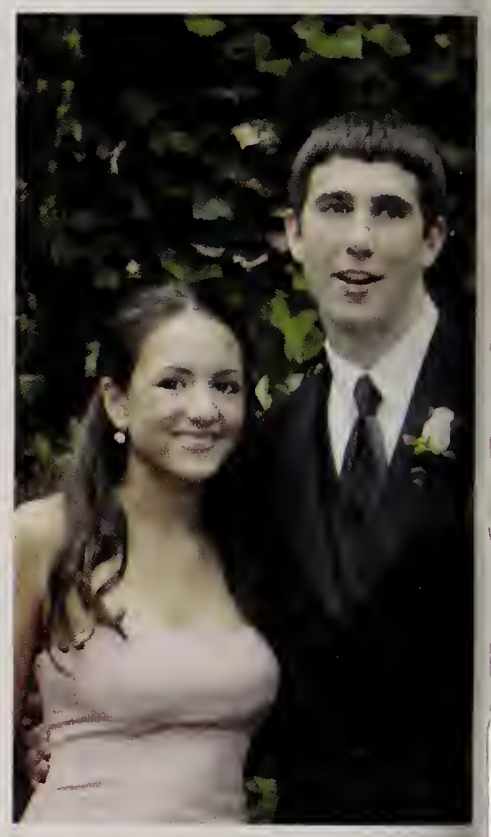
Emily Curtis, Robbie Goldman, Jason Oberg, and Courtney Schopfer yell to the people of Weston to get a car wash and support the class of 2005 for a great cause.

Megan McCurdy and Alene Aftandilian are proud to announce the winners of the Special Olympics basketball tournament. Everyone did such a great job, nice teamwork!

City Lights

The Class of 2005's prom was a huge success. The theme was City Lights and the magical night will never be forgotten by Weston High School students. Everyone donned their best clothes and danced late into the night at Boston's Back Bay Hilton.

Charming Men
Matt Feldman, Krister Svensson and Brad Rubash are all dressed up in their sharp tuxes for the Prom.



How Gorgeous
These students are all glammed-up for their Junior Prom at the Hilton Back Bay and cannot wait to start their night of dinner and dancing. Look at all those anxious dancers!

Love Birds
Sonni Bendetson and Tom Watson are a beautiful couple all ready for their Junior Prom Night. They have been waiting in excitement for so long...

Some dancing darlings
Sonali Bloom and Kathleen Gens are decked-out in their best duds for Prom 2004!

Ride in Style
These members of the Class of 2005 are ready for the night to begin as their in their luxurious white stretched limo.

White and Wonderful
Matt Karasch and Rhianon Liu are decked-out in white and ready for the Prom to begin. How stylish!

Ready to go
Talia Abrahams and Ariel Landy have been waiting to dance at the Hilton Back Bay for a very long time. Prom time has finally arrived.

Keeping it real
Grant Wiggill, Scott Montgomery, Tucker Skenderian, Brian Malconian, Ben Smith, Greg Pearson, and Dante Capasso show their hot shades on the green before dance time.

Star light, Star bright
Nicole Zaia, Samantha Lindenauer, Katherine Farner, Kristen Hughes, and Lindsay Sousa wait in anticipation for the 2004 Weston High prom.

All smiles

Green Wall Goddesses
Liz Elfman, Stephanie Wake, Deirdre O'Mara, Liz Ballard, Elaine Tran, and Christine Reny are so excited that their special day has finally arrived. They can't wait for their night to begin...

Backyard Ba
Wedel, Katie
Rubin, Liz Callow,
eron, Emily Curtis,
, and Rachel Gordon:
all smiles

Singing Her Heart Out
Ali Ritter warms the audience with her glorious presence in singing If I Ain't Got You by Alicia Keys. Her voice carries with energy as the juniors and seniors dance the night away.

Glam Girls
Kathleen Gens, Sonali Bloom and Talia Abrahams are looking especially fine on this magical evening. Great smiles, ladies!

Looking Sharp
Jessica Ackerman, Carla Petersen, and Ky Le take a break from grooving on the dance floor to rest their feet and converse with each other at the candle-lit tables.

Breaking it Down
Sean McMahon, Elaine Tran, and John Dryden are pumped to finally show off their moves and spend the night with such great frends.

Gleaming Girls
Sam Lindenauer, Kristen Hughes, Nicole Zaia, and Britney Hines are ready to knock everyone's socks off on the dance floor. Such a talented group of dancers!

Sparkle and Shine
Tom Watson, Sarah Follansbee, Amanda Cort, and Dante Capasso promise to save at least one dance for each other before the night is over.

Stunning

en Smith, Amanda Cort, and Sean Quinn look absolutely stunning on this bulous spring night in May.

Picture Perfect

Joli Anza, Sarah Finnerty, Lisa Orth, Jamie Bazaz, Meredith Cameron, and Brittany Thompson look like stars on their long-awaited special night.

All Teeth

Emily Curtis, Hillary Goldy, and Stephanie Wake show some teeth for the camera in between dances. Such angelic faces, ladies!

Gals in Gowns

Sophia Farooqui, Ben Megargel, Lisa Orth, and Brittany Thompson celebrate in style. Such great friends, such great memories. Keep on dancing!

Captured with Charm

Advisors

Thanks to our wonderful advisors who have been with us since Freshman year! Thank you for all your effort.

Have you ever wondered what it takes to be an advisor to a class? A lot of dedication and patience. Our advisors have put in a lot of time and effort to help organize class activities and make school more exciting to the Class of 2005. They worked with the class officers to formulate ideas to bring a variety of opportunites to the students.

We could not have asked for four more dedicated people. They came in early in the morning to meet with the officers and gave up their free time to organize and run the activities. Their hard work has made these past four years fly. As we near commencement the Class of 2005 would like to thank them for all that they have done.

"I feel very appreciative towards the class officers and greatful to the class of '05 for their great work, especially with regard to the Special Olympic Tournamnt."

~Mr. Mathers~
2005 Advisor

"Being class advisor is just like being a teacher, only on a grander scale. Even though there is no specific subject, we both learn valuable lessons from each other."

~Mr.Moon~
2005 Advisor

"It has been a pleasure working for the class of 2005. I have thoroughly enjoyed my poisiton as a parent advisor and would like to give a big thank you to all the officers."

~Mrs. Korsmeyer~
Parent Advisor

"I would sincerely like to thank the class of 2005 for giving me this opportunity to work with such a talented group of individuals. The grade events have been successful and fun, congratulations!

~Mrs. Wake~
Parent Advisor

Mrs. Wake, the mother of Stephanie Wake, has been an active leader in preparing Senior Class events. These include things such as the car wash fundraiser.

Mr. Moon and Mrs. Baker celebrate this happy day of marriage as one important milestone that took place during his tenure as an advisor. Mr. Moon was an encouraging and supportive class advisor and the Senior class would not be nearly as successful if not for his hard work, time, and effort dedicated to '05.

Right: Tucker Skendarian, Dan Strauss and Liz Callow are ready to take action with their spatulas. They know how to lead a class event with a lot of class spirit.

SENIORS

Shine a light and take a look at this year's Senior Class of 2005. We have supported each other, grown up, and captured memories together. As we enter a new chapter in our lives, we look back and reflect upon the wonderful friendships and accomplishments made at Weston High School. Now and forever we will always be a part of the Class of 2005 and the...

Dear Mom & Dad,
If it wasn't with your support I wouldn't be were I am today. I want to thank-you for your love, dedication, and strength for pushing me to get my education. You have been there when others left me. You both have given me the strength to be what I want to be, you both gave me everything so I could have a better future, and that is the greatest gift anyone could give me. I wanted to tell you that I always listened when you talked to me, even when you thought I wasnt, I was, your widsom, and stories have taught me so much. I wanted to tell you that I love you both more than anything in the world and I will always be your little girl.

To anyone who has been a positive force in my life to this point – Thank you so much, I appreciate everything you have done.

Jonathan – Baby Birjiniuk, you have a lot to live up to and you have so much potential, good luck.
Joav – You are so talented, don't waste what you have – I am sure you will succeed.
Mom and Dad – You gave up everything to get me to where I am today, and that means the world to me. Thank you for all your patience and effort, and for always being there for me. I love you.!

"Look well to this day! Within it lies all…"
—Bhagavad Gita

These are my memories of high school: the dim orange glow of my sanctuary, and the thrill of competition; the rise and fall of empires, fractal ferns, and Varsity Physics; a few good crushes, fewer boyfriends, the requisite heartbreak, and the care of my friends. I'm nostalgic already, but my life awaits me in the future.

Thank you for making my life as beautiful as it has been.

"If you can wait and not be tired by waiting, Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,/Or being hated, don't give way to hating,/And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise: … Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,/And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:…/If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew/To serve your turn long after they are gone,/And so hold on when there is nothing in you/Except the Will which says to them: 'Hold on!'…/If you can fill the unforgiving minute/With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,/Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,/And-which is more-you'll be a Man, my son!"-Rudyard Kipling

Much love to those who love deserve. In no real order, thanks to FC, SM, BC, DB, AV, and anyone who should be in here but I forgot –you know I'm like that.

Thanks to B and M for putting up with my craziness. Corey, you should probably be in here, too.

Remember the scroll wheel and the Milanos, and watching bad movies in the skyyyyy.
I'll miss the Saturdays and the people.

Sir, my concern is not whether God is on our side. My great concern is to be on God's side. - Abraham Lincoln

Above all, I thank my family for their unflappable support in everything that I do. I also express my sincere gratitude to all the faculty - you all have truly made differences in our lives. My only message to the Class of 2005 is this: listen to that little voice in your head and do the right thing.

Best Wishes to All,

—Prophet Muhammad

Well, class of 2005 it's amazing how quickly time flies. It feels only like yesterday we were walking in here as freshman. But now the time has come to move on, and these past four years we have gone through our fair share of ups and downs, joys and sorrows, as well as victories and setbacks. Overall, these four years have all taught us valuable lessons. I am certain this class will accomplish and do many great things.

Mom and Dad, you're the best parents a child could ask for; whatever values I have it is to your credit.

If all my friends didn't go to school I probably would have just stayed at home everyday. So thank you all for giving me a reason to come. And thank you to all of the people that make me want to leave and give me a reason to graduate.

The thing about these quotes is that they mark the end of something - and they signify the beginning of everything. If you know me, then you've influenced me in some way - thank you. Growing up is never easy. You hold on to things that were, you wonder what's to come... You look ahead to what will be, other days, new days, days to come. The thing is, we don't have to hate each other for getting older. We just have to forgive ourselves for growing up...
Mom+Dad, Jeremy+Kerrie, Megan, Brigid: thank you so much for everything even if I'm not the neatest person, EE: don't know where to begin, the cards sum it up, LB: so many good times even just driving around, stalkers 4 life, ET: what number are we at now? ENTERTAINMENT

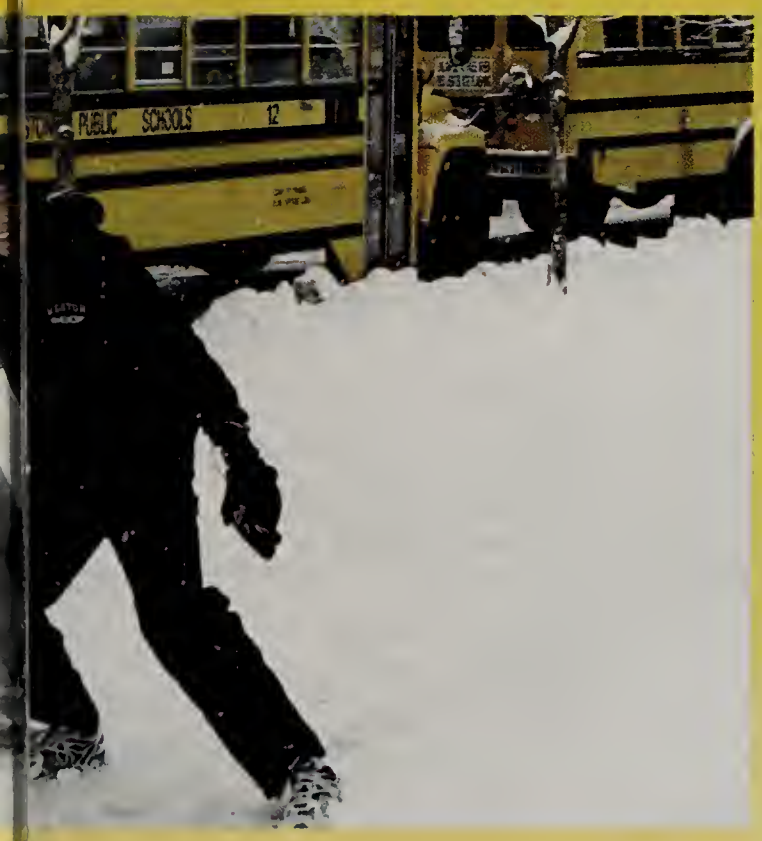
The 2004-2005 Sports Teams have accomplished great things in their many seasons at Weston High School. We only hope that the future of our sports program will emulate the things we have done. Thanks to the talent, and hard work of our fall, winter and spring sports, Weston High School continues to make a name for itself. We will all dearly miss the contributions the Class of 2005 has made and the ...

Spotlight is finally on US!



Cross Country

They run for the finish line even if someone else has crossed it first

Cross Country had a desirable year. Although they lost many of their fastest runners from last years graduating class, many underclassmen stepped up to take their place.

Football

There are no winners, only survivors

This season, the Football Team worked to overcome their past records. Although their 2004 record doesn't necessarily reflect it, the team had a number of strong players leading them to their three victories. Midseason, Matt Howard was hurt during the away game against B Connolly. He sat out the rest of the season with a torn ACL. Unfortunately, he had been a huge part of the game both on defense and offense. The teams numerous injuries and health problems hurt them in the end, especially in the annual Weston-Wayland Thanksgiving game. Although the season was shadowed by key players sitting on the bench, team captains John Lord, Aaron Levine, John Dyrden, Scott Montgomery and George Mensing helped keep the team together on and off the field. The future of the Weston Football program still is in the hands of Coach Rich Brisette. We hope that he is able to lead his team to more victories in the future.

One of the greatest players in the history of Weston basketball, in the third to last game of her senior season, Liz became a part of the legendary 1000 point club. Liz had accomplished one of the most highly respected goals in Weston athletics. Along with Miranda Craigwell, who graduated a number of years ago, Liz Callow's name will now join other 1000 pointers next to the Wildcat in the High School gym. She will be remembered as not only one of the best basketball players, but as an all around strong athlete.

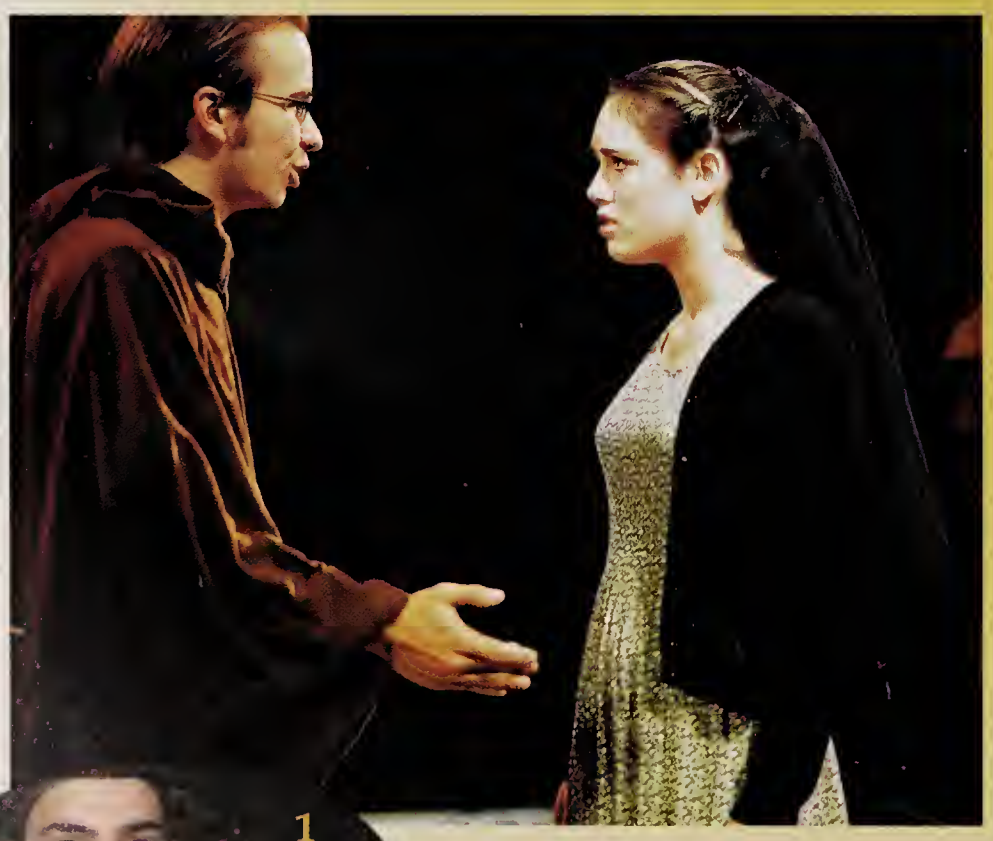
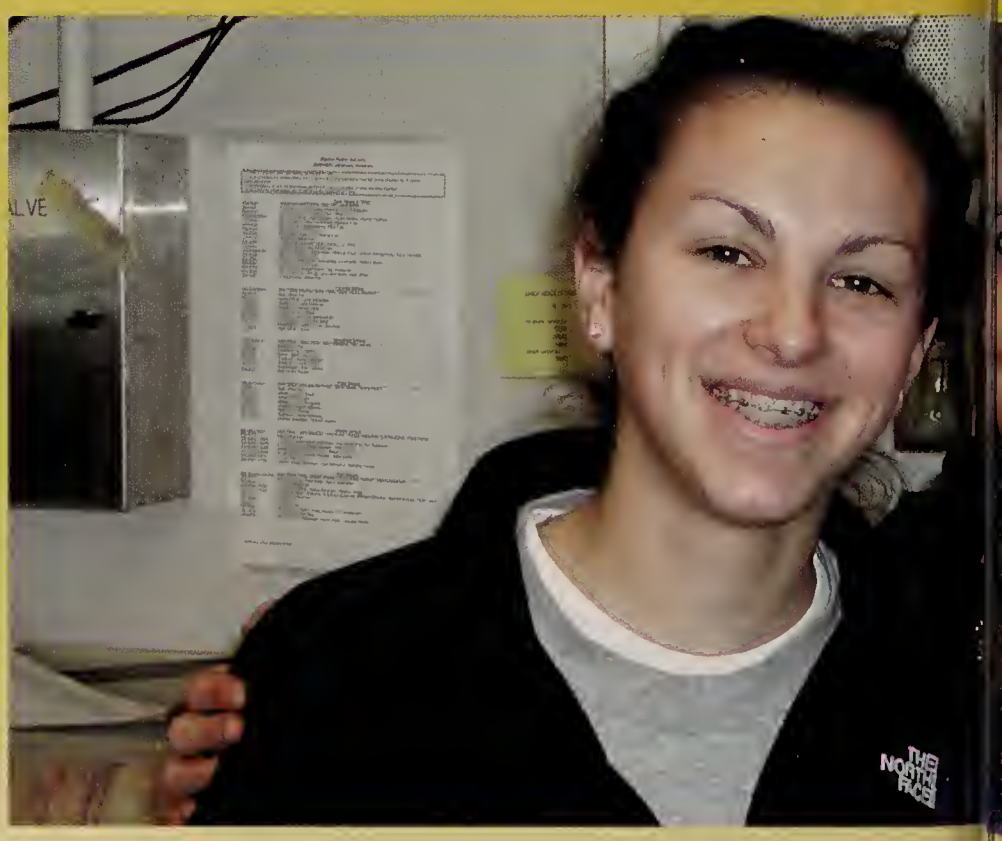
The fall play "Measure for Measure" was a hit at Weston High. The authentic set and characters made it a play hard to forget!





SHOW

Outside of the academic world, students have many unseen talents that contribute to who they are. Every student has some type of "Student Life" defining their personality. Activities are not only about doing things, they are about life. The activities students are a part of are the "SHOW." Activities are the Main Attraction!!! LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION and the...

Spotlight is finally on US!

The Town Criers melt the hearts of Weston High ladies with their amazing voices capable of knocking anyone off their feet.

Soloists perform with the chorus accompanied by Daniel Spector at yet another amazing concert.

Doc Prov takes a bow after conducting an extraordinary concert.

Gospel Choir is getting down with a strong lead by Ashley Summers. Her presence is warm and she is a real star.

John presents "Sexual Healing" to the school with the Town Criers during the Valentines Assembly.

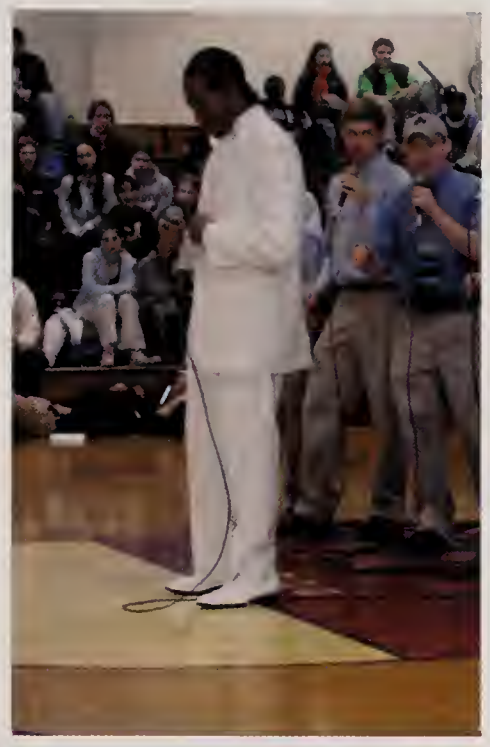
Vocal Student Life....

Choral Music Groups

We have numerous vocal groups at Weston High. Some are school classes and directed by Dr. Provenzano, for example Mixed Chorus and Concert Choir. David Fuller directs the Gospel Choir. Several others groups, such as the Pralines and Town Criers, are student directed.

Boy, can all of these groups sing. Instrumental isn't the only musical life of a student. Some students can actually "pipe." These groups have sung at events worldwide, local and they do it well. Their amazing voices make Weston proud.

Mr.Fuller watches as the Gospel Choir presents a powerful rendition of some of their favorite tunes.



John Dryden, looking sharp in his white suit, solos a love tune on Valentines. He sure knows how to make any lady smile.

The Pralines, dressed in their finest pink, perform love songs appropriate for the holiday.

Ali Ritter and Daniela Caso lead the Pralines in a heart-warming valentines day performance.

Taeko Nakashima, Son Le, Michael Grant, and Rhianon Liu practice for the up-coming choral recital.

Doc Prov leads the entire Chorus, along with the Community Chorus, in a combined concert performed at Regis College.

Awaiting direction, the Chorus stands in silence in preparation for their next song.

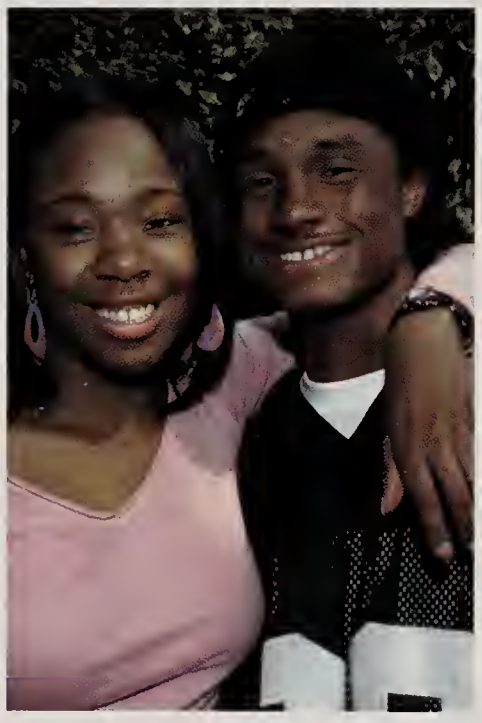
Multi-Cultural Student Life. . .

Asian, Jewish & Black Student Unions

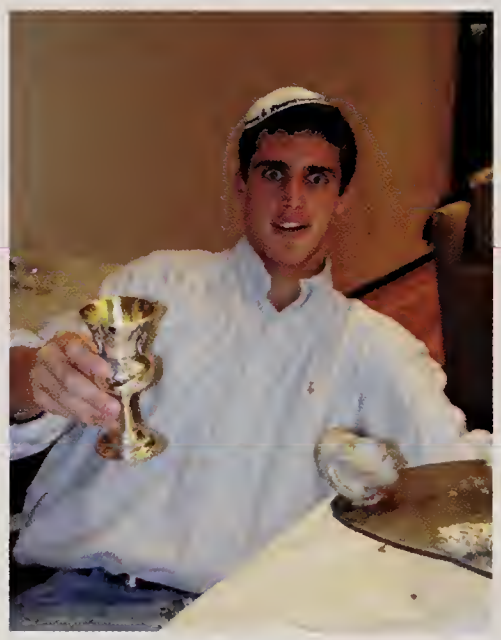
Open to all students of all ethnic backgrounds, each union perserves and introduces their own cultures to the school society. The Asian Student Union attends conferences and workshops for Asian-American youths and hosts Asia Night, a night that features Asian food and cultural performances. The Black Student Union raises money from selling fruit and other fundraising events. Member METCO students take pride in their culture, and present an assembly during Black History month. The Jewish Student Union holds many events that include Shabbat dinners, working with the Jewish community and having their annual Hanukkah celebration.

Ms. Dang, Vivian Liu, Ho-man Leung, Vinay Shau, Rhianon Liu, Jen Wu, and Mrs. Lee proudly represent the ASU.

Lindsey Briggs and Amarri Jackson are two BSU seniors officers that will always remian true friends.



BSU officers and members join together in unity.



Dan Strauss is celebrating Shabbat with an honorary kiddish cup of grape juice.

Amanda Cort, David Weissman, Hillary Goldy, Allie Charlip, Jess Ackerman, Meredith Cameron, Greg Pearson and Mike Libert happily say the blessings for the candles.

Mountains and friends! What a combination. These Outdoor Club members a take a break on their hike to take in the beautiful view.

Mr. Kelley and Matt Fixler are involved in the Ultimate Frisbee Club. This sport is fast-paced and extremely exciting.

Sitting on the mountains...what a great sunset. There is no place like the mountains for becoming one with nature.

Alexandra Rodday and Damali Jackson, Equestrian member, love talking about horses and their riding experiences.

Snow and skis are friends to these Mountain Club members.

Physical Student Life. . .

Equestrian, Frisbee,Mountain, & Outdoor Clubs

Physical fitness is the goal of these clubs. The Equestrians, a new club this year, spend their time talking about horses, competing in horse shows and watching movies on horse riding, all while eating. The Frisbee Club, a club that has been around for a while, plays the "ULTIMATE" frisbee, all thanks to Mr. Kelley. They have competitions between students and faculties both outside and inside the school life. The Mountain Club hosts trips to Attitash in New Hampshire and enjoys hiking up treacherous mountains. The Outdoor Club seeks weekend trips and vacations in the OUTBACK. They like camping and planning trail trips.

Service Student Life. . .

Student Council, Amnesty & National Honor

These clubs serve to make the community a better place to live and grow. Amnesty International works everyday, all day, over the nation to prevent abuses of human rights, both in this country and worldwide. WHS's chapter works on many of the organizations's campaigns. They believe in activism. Student Council works everyday, all day, striving to make WHS a better place for students. They defend the rights of students in this community. National Honor Society works everyday, all day trying to make the Massachusetts community better. They take service projects and raise money to help the benefit of others that are not as fortunate. YEAH SERVICE!

Alex Papageorge, Alona Birjiniuk, John Dryden, Rhianon Liu, Erika Weihmayer, David Maystrovsky, Jen Wu, Hillary Goldy, and Meredith Bryden are members of the National Honor Society.

The whole school Student Council meets to develop school-wide activities.

Hillary Sieber, Julia Gerber, Diane French, Rachel Mazzella, and Kevin Stirling brainstorm ideas for Amnestry.

Mike Libert and Rob Mohr, co-prededents at WHS, attend a Student Council meeting to discuss the latest issues.

Joshua Bookman, Jen Mackie, and Kathleen Gens keep smiling because they know they will make a difference with Amnesty International.

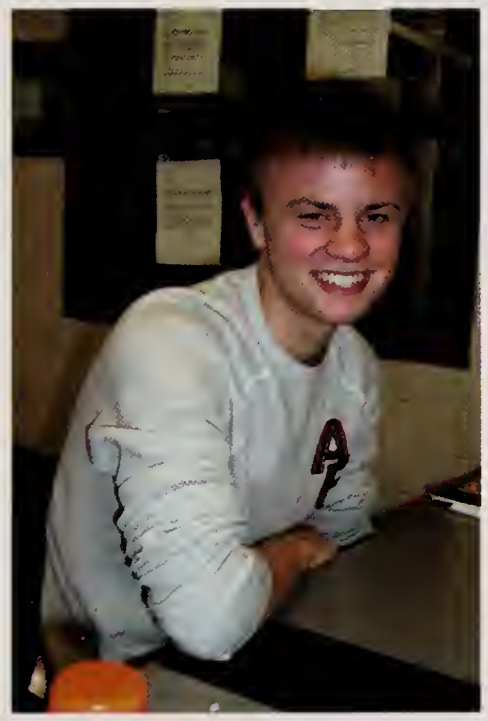
Literary Student Life. . .

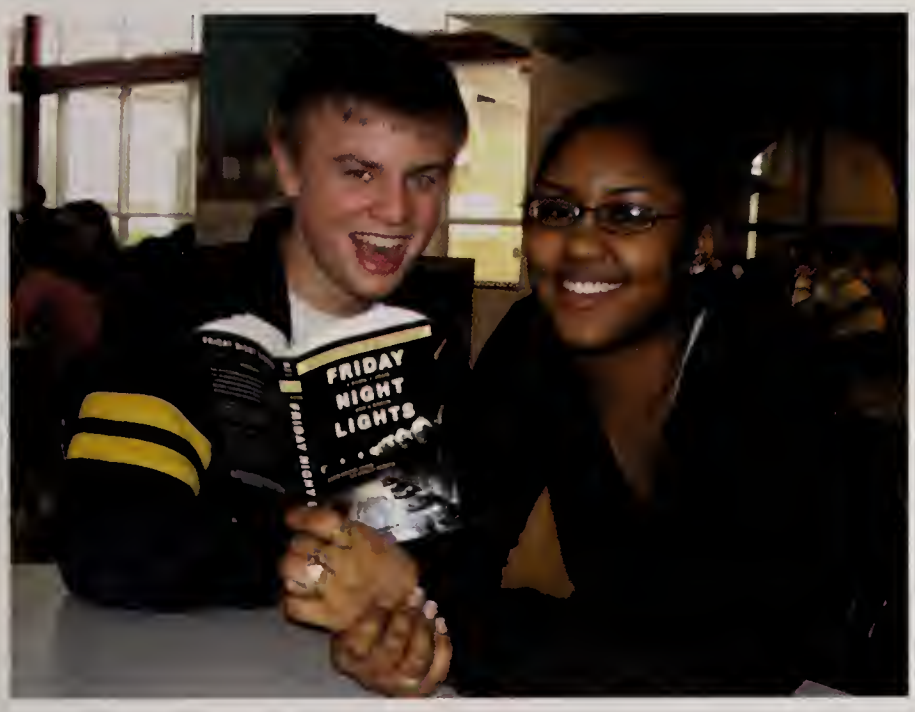
Wildcat Tracks, Maelstrom & Book Clubs

NEWS! NEWS! NEWS! These clubs feature the the news, student workand enjoy a good book. Journalism is apart of their survival. Wildcat Tracks features news and opinions about WHS. They publish the thoughts and what is going on in the lives of a Weston Student. They interview, they write editorials and much more. Anything to keep students happy. Maelstrom take news to the next level. They change faces every where. they publish the writing of WHS students. It is a time where students can shine. Student Book Club love to read a good book and extend beyond what was read. They take their ideas of what the author is trying to say and discuss it.

Mr. Kelley, leader of the Maelstrom magazine, works with students to create a masterpiece full of student's poetry and various free-writes.

Ben Megargel enjoys being an editor of Wildcat Tracks. We'll all be reading his column someday when he is famous.



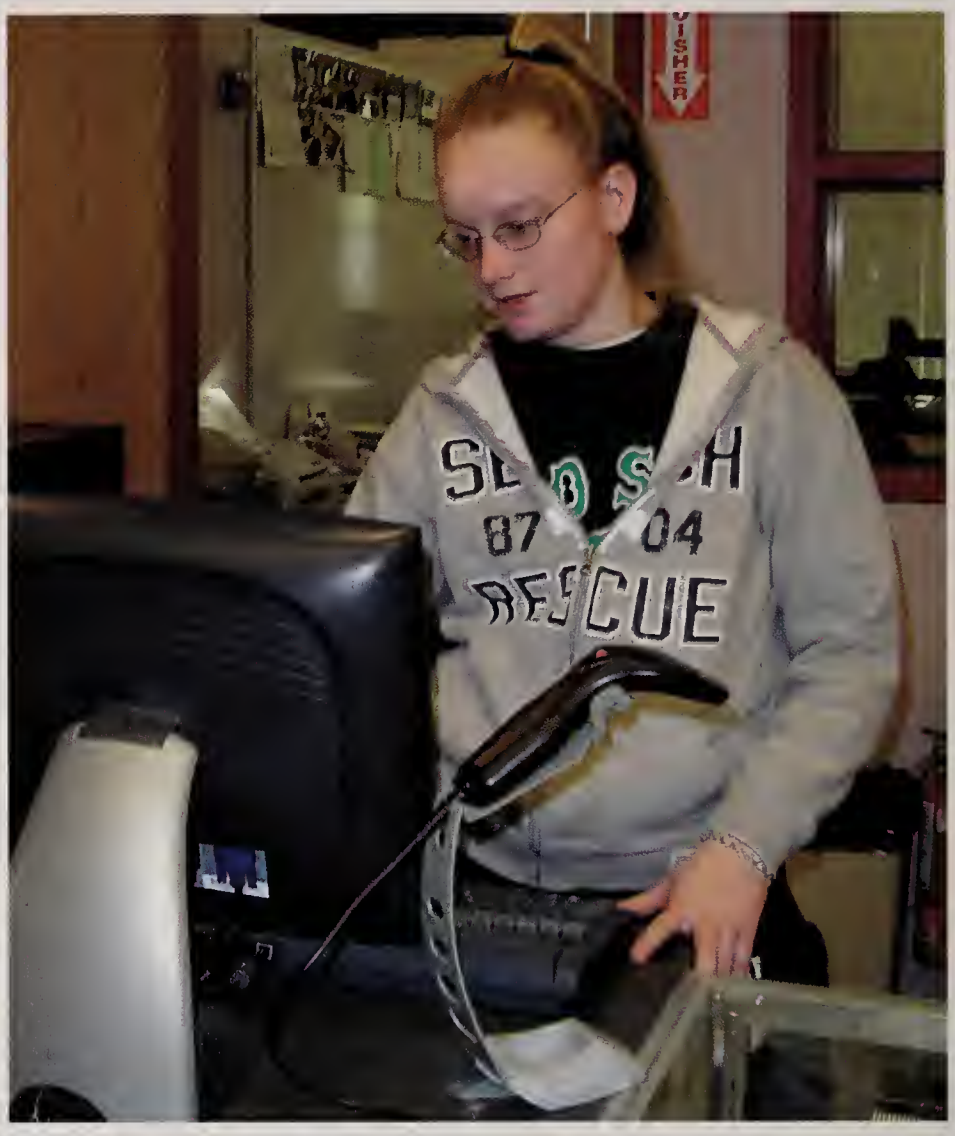


Two seniors, Ben Megargel and Kerri-Lynne Thomas share their passion for reading in the Student Book Club.

Sandy Ho, Taeko Nakashima, and Nicholas Creamer review and edit literature that was recently submitted to Maelstrom.

Elsbeth Paige-Jeffers describes her favorite piece of writing to the group.

Marie Grant checks the balances on the days profits. She is a dedicated member to the Stockyard crew.



James Costantini never messes up on adding, he loves Stockyard and all the fun behind the scenes!

Mr. O'Connor discusses the lessons of business success with Alona Birjiniuk.

Victor Goodman counts those dollar bills. He hopes to be a very rich man some day. Money, Money, Money!

Rani Manoharan and Eric Stix work on math problems that apparently have them stumped.

Numbered Student Life...

Stockyard & Math Team

These clubs enjoy playing around with numbers. The Stockyard is a student-owned and run business. Students invest in the stock market and sell various items in the School Store, all while learning how to manage a business. The school store stocks clothes, candy, school supplies and other essentials for survival. The Math team competes in two leagues monthly, sending ten members to competitions with at least two Frosh or Soph members in attendance. Students must be strong in the world of numbers, addition, multiplying and problem solving to be successful in these clubs.

Nicole Curtis, Nicole Kraus, Genevieve LaFrance, Kate Suominen, and Alyssa Kane are all proud members of SADD and don't take their job lightly.

David Maystrovsky smiles proudly, as he represents the Republican ideals. He feels strongly about the views of this electoral side.

Mr. Cope helps these students cope with all their problems. He provides lots of guidance to all in need.

The Republican Student Union is a new group formed during this years' heated presidential election.

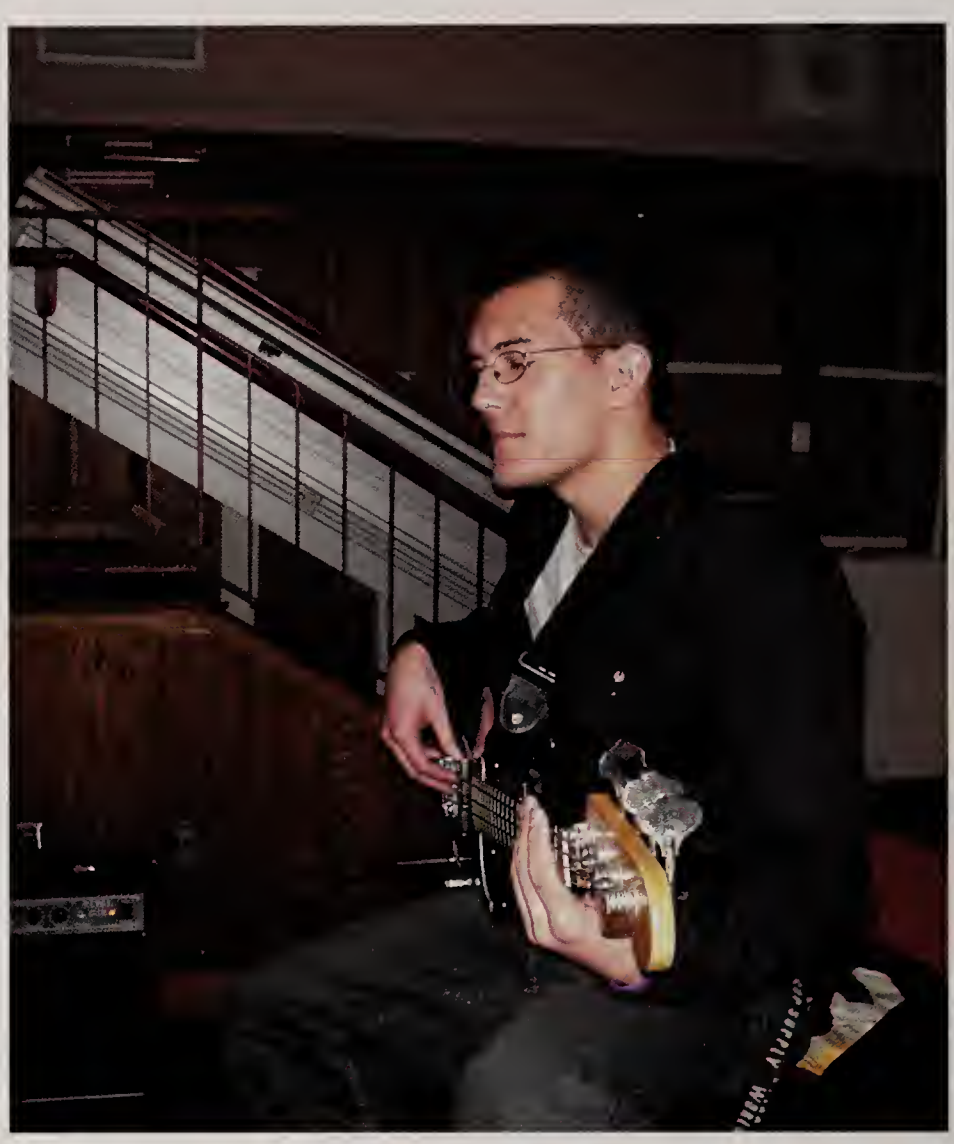
Kate Stookey shows her dance moves to Graham Frankel and gets the Environmental party started.

Socially and Environmentally Aware Student Life. . .

RSU, SEA, SADD & Discussion Group

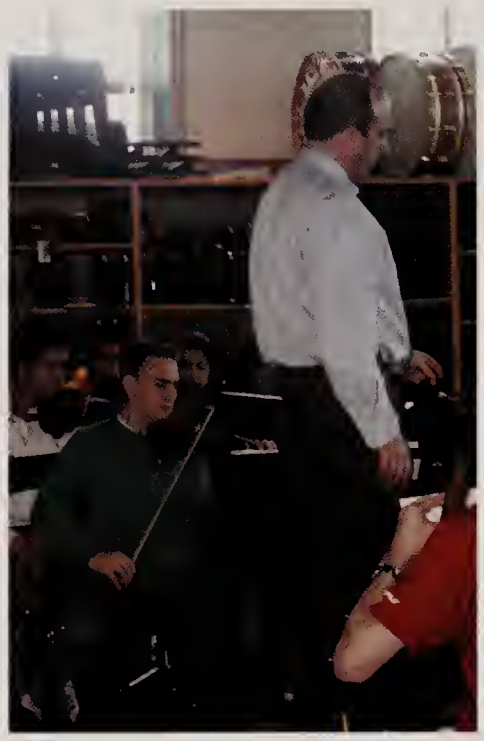
The Republican Student Union talks about global and political issues that revolve around the Republican Party ideals. Students for Environmental Action focus on improving environmental awareness in the school through recycling paper and cans, all the while stressing a priority for people to be involved in the future wellness of the environment. SADD, Students Against Destructive Decisions, is devoted to raising awarenss of the harmful effects of tobacco, alcohol and drugs. The Discussion Group is monitored by David Cope and serves to provide students with a place to talk about their issues with confidentiality.

Matt Karasch has devoted much time and effort to following his musical abilities, one of which is playing the guitar.

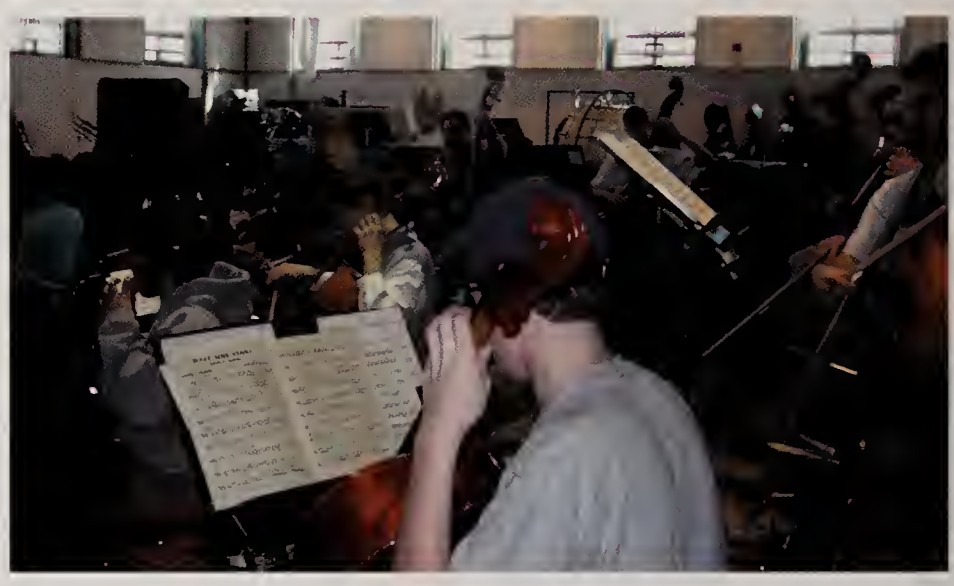


Mr.Memloi motions to the top violinists to slow down and keep in beat with the rest of the orchestra.

The Weston orchestra has a good reputation for breeding top musicians, and many who will persue music in their future.



Seniors John Condakes, Greg Pearson and Matt Karasch perform in one of their last assemblies. at Weston High.



Reading music is hard work. It takes great concentration to master an instrument.

Musical Student Life. . .

Instrumental Music

Instrumental music is an essential part of the school life of a large number of Weston High students. Many of these students possess amazing talents--talents like playing the guitar, the violin, or composing songs. These students work extremely hard at this part of their life. Many have been taking lessons from an early age, as well as practicing for hours, in an effort to hone their innate talent; . They perform for the school in assemblies, shows and dances. It takes real courage to get up in front of fellow classmates, but these students do it and the school loves it.

Mr. Memoli leads the orchestra in practicing for Fiddler On The Roof, the spring musical.

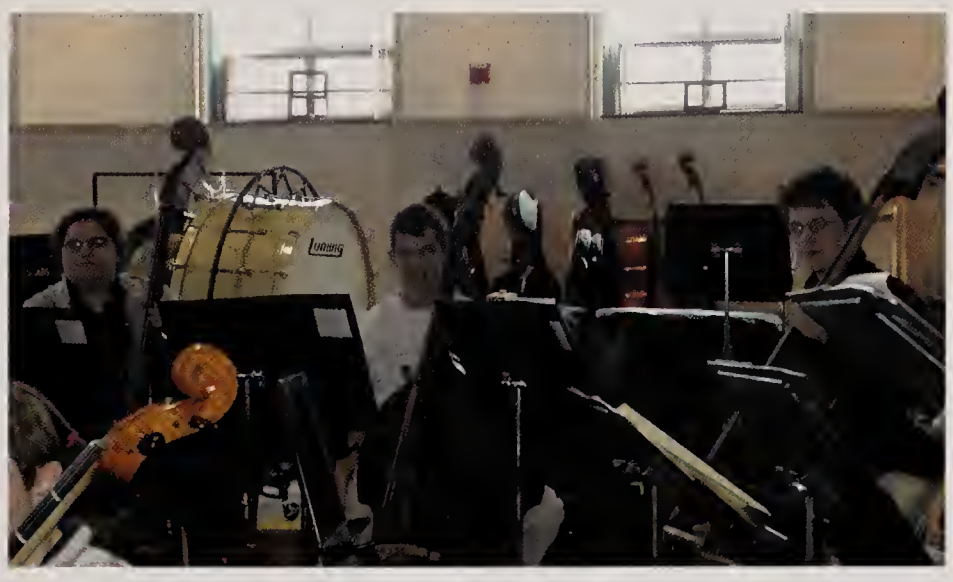
Dave Weissman is a very talented pianist who is warming up for the concert.

Dave Weissman even writes his own p ieces. It won't be long before we hear him on the radio!

David Weissman, voted most likely to be famous, will some day be in our cd players.

Teachers and students collaborate together in a musical ensemble- and no one will forget hearing Ms. Westfall sing.

The entire orchestra rehearses for the school play. They patiently await the commands of Mr.Memloi on when to play.



The celloists string in harmony playing their favorite songs.

"Theatrical" Student Life. . .

Theater Company

The Theater Company is one of the most successful and popular activities among the student body. They produce four shows a year--two plays, one musical and an evening of student directed plays. The group also sponsors workshops, field trips to local theatres and Broadway, presentations of student written work as well as particpating in the Boston Shakspeare competition. LONG LIVE THE THEATRE! Their fall production was William Shakespeare's "Measure For Measure." The cast included Jon Carlson, Hannah Sweet, Charlie Redlick, Mara Black, Ian Wrangham, Natalie Birren, Daniela Caso, Matt Doyle, Zack Kimball, Marianna Papageorge, Britney Hines, Alex Engler, Lindsay Sousa , Jessica Young, David Maystrovsky, Ben Gold, Maddie Redlick, Daniela Caso, Anelise Wiersema, Matt Karasch, Robert Slotnick and John Candakes.

The cast prepares to rehearse for their upcoming performance.

Senior Jon Carlson plays a very convincing Vincetio in "Measure for Measure."

Crippled Charlie Redlick and Lindsay Sousa work hard at role playing.

Lindsay Sousa grabs the eyes of the audience in her performance as Isabella, a noive.

Matt Doyle, Ben Gold, David Maystrovsky, and Hannah Sweet played important roles in making this production successful.

Claudio and Isabella chat in a family discussion, played by Lindsay Sousa and Zachary Kimball.

Handcuffs can hurt, but pratice makes perfect! Ian Wrangham, Matt Doyle, and David Maystrovsky would sure know.

Award winning performances should be recognized to these actors and actresses!

Brtiney Hines takes he role on stage very seriously.

Jon Carlson consoles Lindsay Sousa in their roles as Vincetio and Isabella. Their friendship continues off stage, as well.

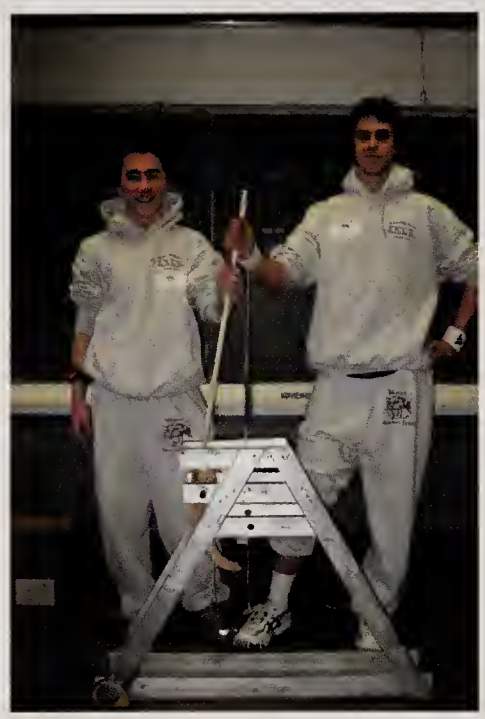
Matthew Doyle looks suprised at Daniela Caso's fall out.

Daniela Caso, a singer, always keeps smiling.

Nora Khalil, Nashua Khalil and Stephanie Gilchrist are putting their heads together to form the Muslim Student Union.

Sam Collinson and Jon Spencer show off the trebucket that won first place for the Science Team!

Nora Khalil and Nashua Khalil plan for a MSU event which will incorporate Muslim traditions and culture in fun activities for all to attend.



Lizzy Atkin, P. J. Constantinides, Jeff Geller, Allie Hajjar, Annie Kenney, Adam Libert, Bridget McCurdy, Katie McLoughlin, Mr. Mathers and Grant Wiggill are members of the Scuba Club. Special recognition goes to Lizzy Atkin for her devotion to the club.

The Science Team stratigizes for their upcoming meet. They hope to win and by planning together they have a better shot and a leg up on the competition.

"Brainy" Student Life. . .and New Groups

Science Club, Muslim SU, Scuba

Science is an important aspect of school that extends beyond the classroom and becomes a passion for some students! The world of experiments, discovering new chemicals and understanding evolution draws students in. The Science Team competes against other high schools as they put their interest in science to the test. The Scuba Club is working toward a practice scuba dive in the Middle School pool this April. They will then branch out into more serious (and dangerous) diving in the ocean. The new Muslim Student Union is just getting off the ground. We look forward to hearing more about them next year.

Debate Team trophy? No way! This is the Red Sox World Championship trophy! Scott Nelson and Geoffrey Smith were lucky enough be able to hold it. Ask them about it!!

With awards, nationals, semi-finals, WHS Debate Team can't be stopped especially with Geoffrey Smith and Amy Bond on the team.

Randall Horn and John Patterson love strategizing the game of chess.

These Anime students love to play video games.

Concentration is one of the many tools to a good game of chess.

More "Brainy" Student Life. . . and ANIME!

Debate, Chess Clubs & Anime

The Debate Team "debates" with other schools and tries to win medals like the golden key, for the best debater. They organize information, think critically and speak in public. Stay away from these kids they love to argue. Learn to play chess and match your wits against fellow chess players.

Try to find new ways to beat your opponent. Anime invasion hits Weston the school! This club loves to play video games, watch cartoon movies and read Manga Anime. Who could not have fun with this group.

"Building Bridges" Student Life. . .

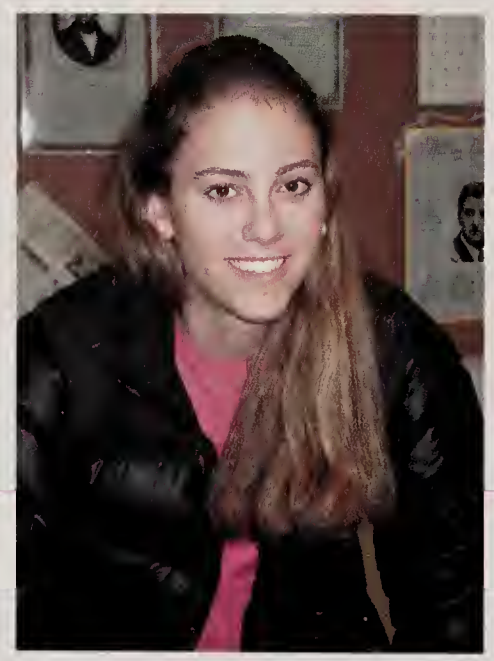
Intergenerational, International & Hispano American

These three clubs love connecting the gaps. Hispano-American Club makes connections with Spanish speakers, cultural expericencs and becoming better friends. A club of amigos! Intergenerational Club assist the older folk of the community by joining them in service and aging. IT S FUN! International Club is filled with opportunities to experience cultures in a way no school education can give. They provide exchange students an opportunity to immerse into the American community; as well as sending students to a variety of foreign countries. Visiting concerts and restaurants makes this club unique.

International Club members--Alia Mehdi, Nora Khalil, Nashua Khalil, Stephanie Gilchrist, Captain Andrew Brown and Ms. da Costa--work on a project.

The Intergenerational Club is lucky to have a dedicated member like Yuri Chong to help plan and coordinate activities.

Julia Dallos, of the Intergenerational Club, works hard to make the club's objectives fit member schedules.



Lauren Margolis takes pleasure in helping in the community.

Hispano Americano join forces to further the power of building bridges.

Sonali Bloom is happy to have won an award at a dance competition. She danced her butt off!

Alison Greenberg, Melanie Quinn, Nicole Curtis, Jessica Caitlin and Gina Angiolillo gladly support these young actresses.

Dancing is intense! Krystal Montgomery and Sonali Bloom share a special moment before one of their competitions.

Melanie Quinn reads a play to all the youngsters involved in this junior performance.

"Entertaining" Student Life. . .

Junior Broadway, Lady Souljahz & Dance

The spotlight shines on these three groups. They strive to ENTERTAIN the student body during game intermissions, school assemblies and various other times. Junior Broadway works to produce a play with and for fourth and fifth graders of Weston with stories like "Cinderella", "Beauty and the Beast" and the "Wizard of Oz".

The children are always pleased with the results. Dance Team has won numerous awards in competitions. With their moves to the most recent and popular hip hop songs they mesmerize their audience. Lady Souljahz always put a pep in their step with their rythmn and flow. Their hands and feet never stop moving.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This year's yearbook, In The Spotlight was a lot of fun to create. We worked very hard and put a lot of time and dedication into designing and planning. However, this yearbook would have never been made possible if it was not for Mrs. Nick, and the three of us would like to thank her for putting up with us and helping out. Also a big thank you goes out to all the staff that put in their own time and effort to make this yearbook a success. Congrats 2005 and we hope everyone enjoys this yearbook.

Iona Nickeson-Advisor

Thanks to everyone who helped create Panorama 2005. It represents an enormous amount of work! I particularly want to congratulate Liz, Deirdre and Hillary who decided on the theme, what should be included in the book, and how the pages should look. Congratulations on a job all done.

co-presidents in the spotlight

The Two Leaders
Mike Libert and Rob Mohr preside over our school's student council and help plan the assemblies that we have every first wednesday.

CO-PRESIDENT REFLECTIONS

"It's been fun being able to incorporate new talent into our assemblies. Neil's ping-pong performance, Dave's karate lesson and Henry's ding-dong song were all very impressive. We have worked hard to assimilate the ideas of our classmates in order to create a fun year, and we hope many of our events were successful."
-Mike Libert

"Being co-president has provided me with the opportunity to learn the names of many at WHS. And, student council was neat. Parliamentary procedure is surely something that Mike and I will use when we go on to become co-presidents of the world."
- Rob Mohr

DODGEBALL
The football team takes on the soccer team in a friendly game of dodgeball during a first wednesday assembly. Needless to say, the football team won!

A HICK AND A LOBSTER
Rob and Mike show off their school spirit by dressing up for the halloween assembly. Rob doons a hick outfit with a lovely accent to accompany it and Mike gets festive as a lobster with a red face to match!

Lance Armstrong started the cause bracelet fab that has swept the nation. These include cancer and the Red Sox victory.

SO LOW
SO LOW's are the stretch pants of the 21st century. These hip leggings are worn throughout the school and provide a stylish day of comfort.

RED SOX
This year the Boston Red Sox victoriously overcame the St. Louis Cardinals to win the World Series. Red Sox gear soared rocket high as a result.

Wildcat Clothing: Weston Wildcat gear is sold in the stockyard. It is a great way to show off your school pride. This year, one could purchase several sweatshirts, sweatpants, hats, and frisbees.

BLING BLING
Pearls, chandelier, and other various long earrings were in style this year. They tie together any outfit with a bit of glam. Many styles can be seen worn through the halls of Weston High.

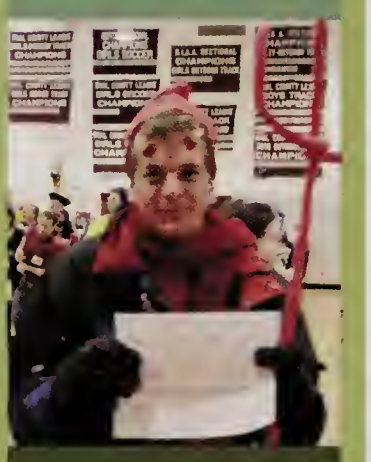
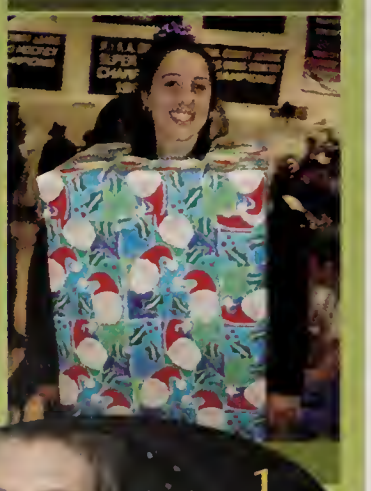
WESTON STUDENT SNAPSHOTS





MEMORABLE MOMENTS

The year 2005 brought many memories, as well as some fun and laughs. Students in all four grades showed off their school spirit at school sponsered events and cheered loudly for the Weston sports teams to win and hopefully beat our rivals, Wayland. Traditions were maintained and students dressed up and acted silly as a break from classes. The dances were a lot of fun, including the bonfire, senior semi-formal and the Valentine's dance. The assemblies will remain as memorable hiatuses from the usual rigorous academic schedule that Weston students attend.

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR MEMORIES ARE MADE, AND MOMENTS LAST A LIFETIME

Time to Show Off
Mason White, Casey Foote and Sonni Bendetson show off their Halloween costumes.

Charlie's Angels
Liz Ballard, Elaine Tran and Jess Ackerman dress up as some butt-kicking girls for Halloween.

2005 WHAT A YEAR

Sophomore Outing
The Sophomore class took an ice skating trip and to keep warm they drank hot chocolate while hanging out with friends and watching their fellow classmates skate.

Tug of War
The Varsity Soccer team competed against the Varsity Field Hockey team in their annual tug of war competition. These ball kicking girls came out on top of the competiton by pulling the hardest.

What a Fire
The 2005 bonfire was enormous in the field between the Middle School and High School. After dancing it up at the school dance, students watched the senior made bonfire burn up a sign saying Beat Wayland in anticipation for the big Thanksgiving game.

Crest Toothpaste
Jared Bourgeois wears one of the most unique costumes as the crest toothpaste man. He won the senior class award for the most inventive outfit.

SENIORS
The 2005 senior class sits in the Gym in their Halloween costumes watching the assembly and other grades show off their own costumes.

Carla Petersen

Dear Carla, I have watched you grow from a beautiful little girl into a strong, knowledgable and sensitive young lady. You have more wisdom and compassion at the age of 17 than most people could only hope to achieve in a lifetime. Your smile is your gift to the world and it shall light your way through life. Stay loving and caring as you are now. Always follow your heart and be true to yourself. I love you. Love, Mom xoxoxoxoxoxoxo

Carla, You have been one of the most inspirational people in my life. You always know what to do and rarely make mistakes. I love looking up to you for help because I know you will always give great advice. It will be so hard to see you go to college after you have been there for me my whole life. Good luck in college. I will be thinking of you the whole time. You are the best sister ever.
Love always, Margaux

You have reached an exciting milestone in your life, and you have accomplished much in your first 18 years. We are proud to have been a part of your life as you have matured into the good, intelligent, loving young woman that you are. You are the focus of our happiest memories - your many academic and athletic successes, Chico, Mountain Sky, Virgin Gorda, and our vacation travel adventures. You have faced life's challenges with courage and a sense of humor. We look forward to being part of the next phase of your life, and have no doubt that you will succeed and be happy. Always remember that we love you more that anything.

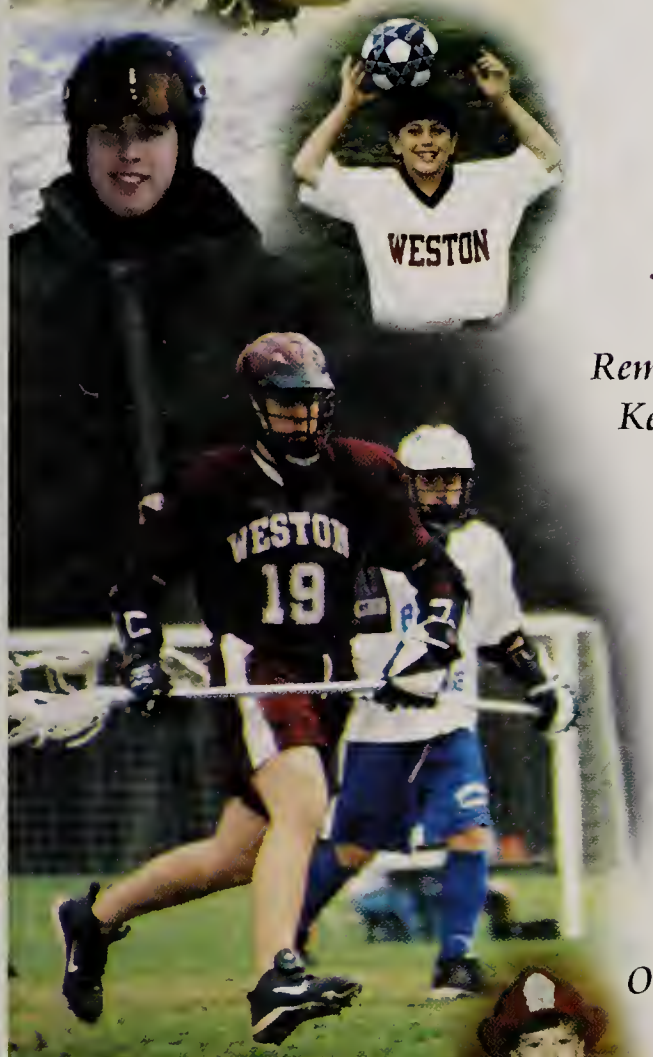
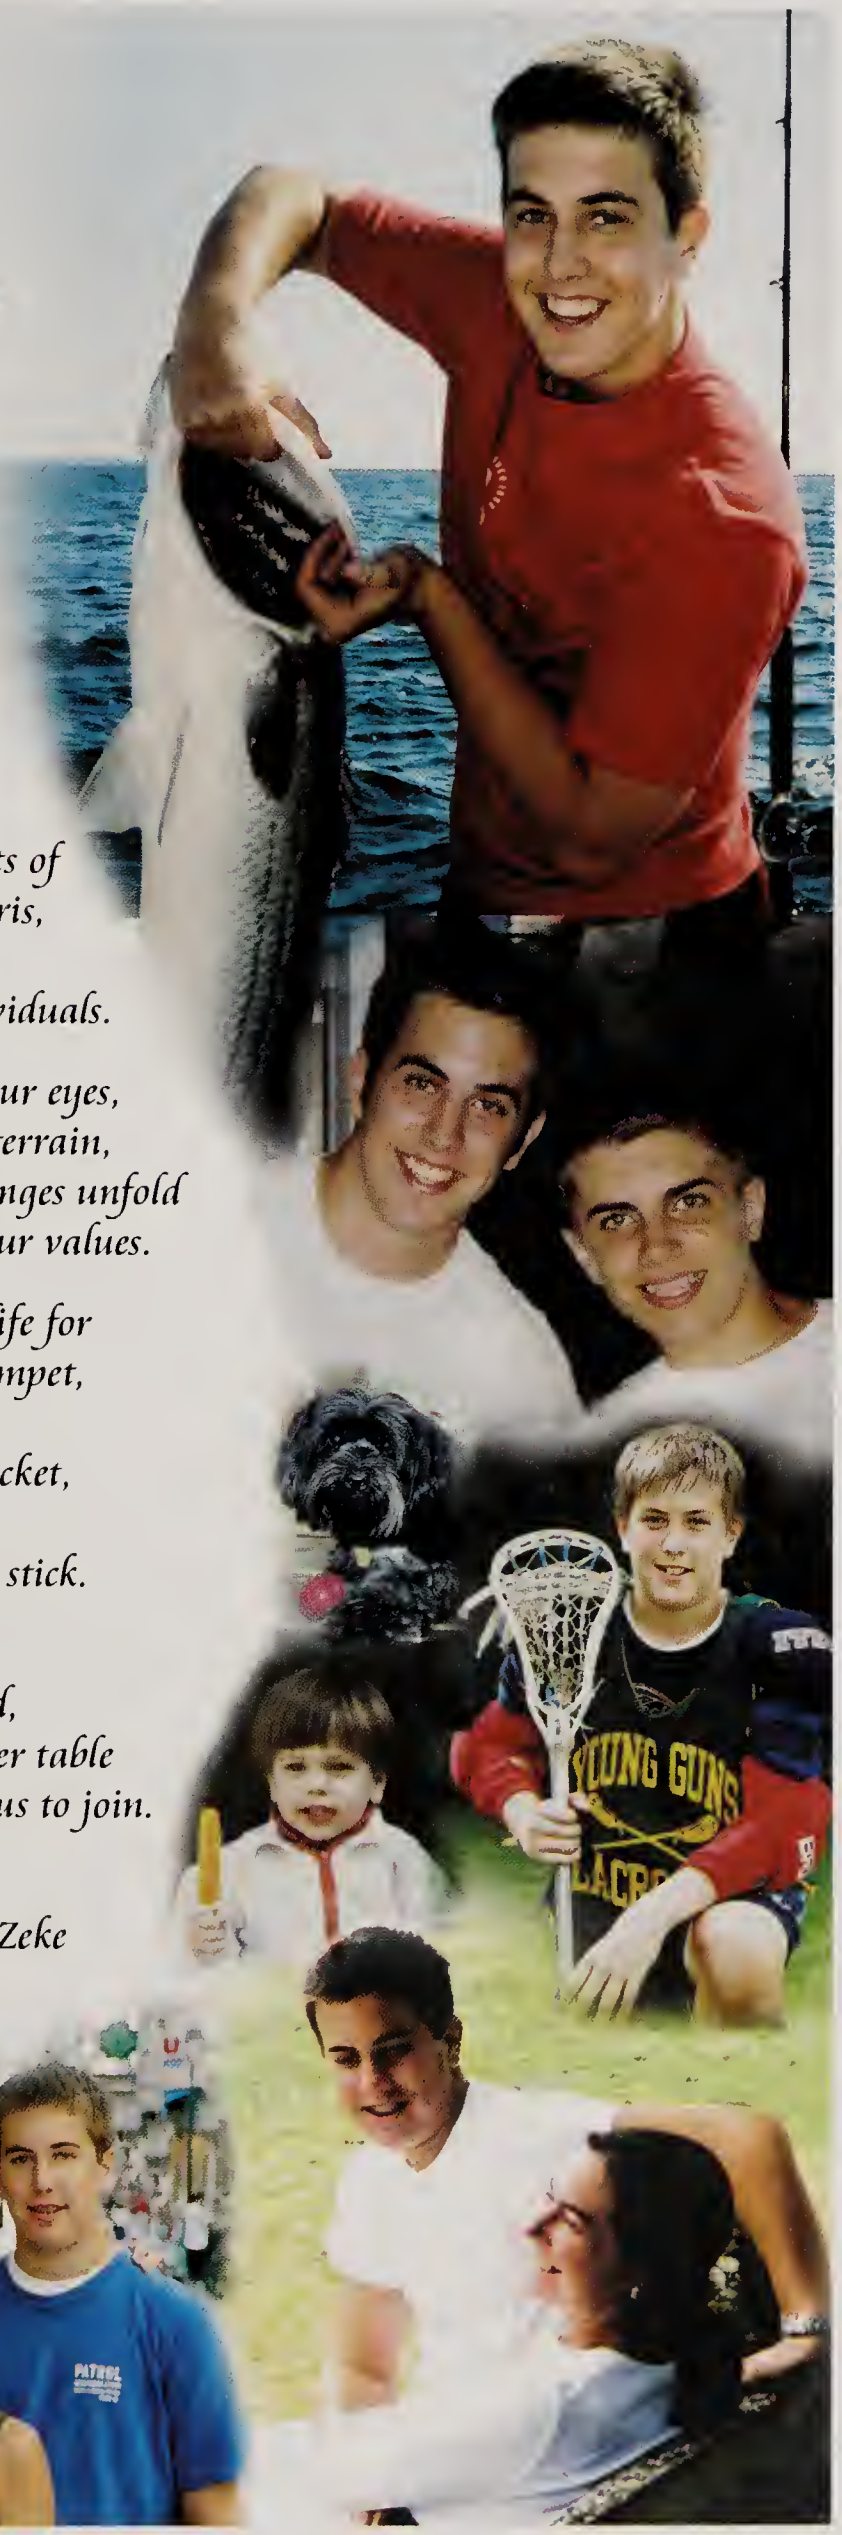
Never a dull moment! Fireworks are legal only in NH. High Beams?? I think I need a lawyer, who's paying? Michael's Hawaiian Retreat. And who else whold drive you all the way to Plattekill? We are proud of your rowing achievements, hard work always pays off. You want to join the MWVST? Locked out, when the cat's away the mice do play...NH, GS skis in the winter, jet skis in the summer, Mom's Jeep, it really is all yours, Amazing athlete, the family vote is in; you are the loudest chewer. If all else fails Michelle's basement is an option, Ahhh, the Caddy Shack pants. Easily annoyed, mechanically gifted yes, but don't mention Legos on a college application. Stay true to yourself and success will follow, you are in our hearts and thoughts always, we are your biggest fans, Love,

Alex





Our intrepid traveler
Whether through the streets of Cambridge, Weston or Paris,
Keep your respect for Community, family and individuals.

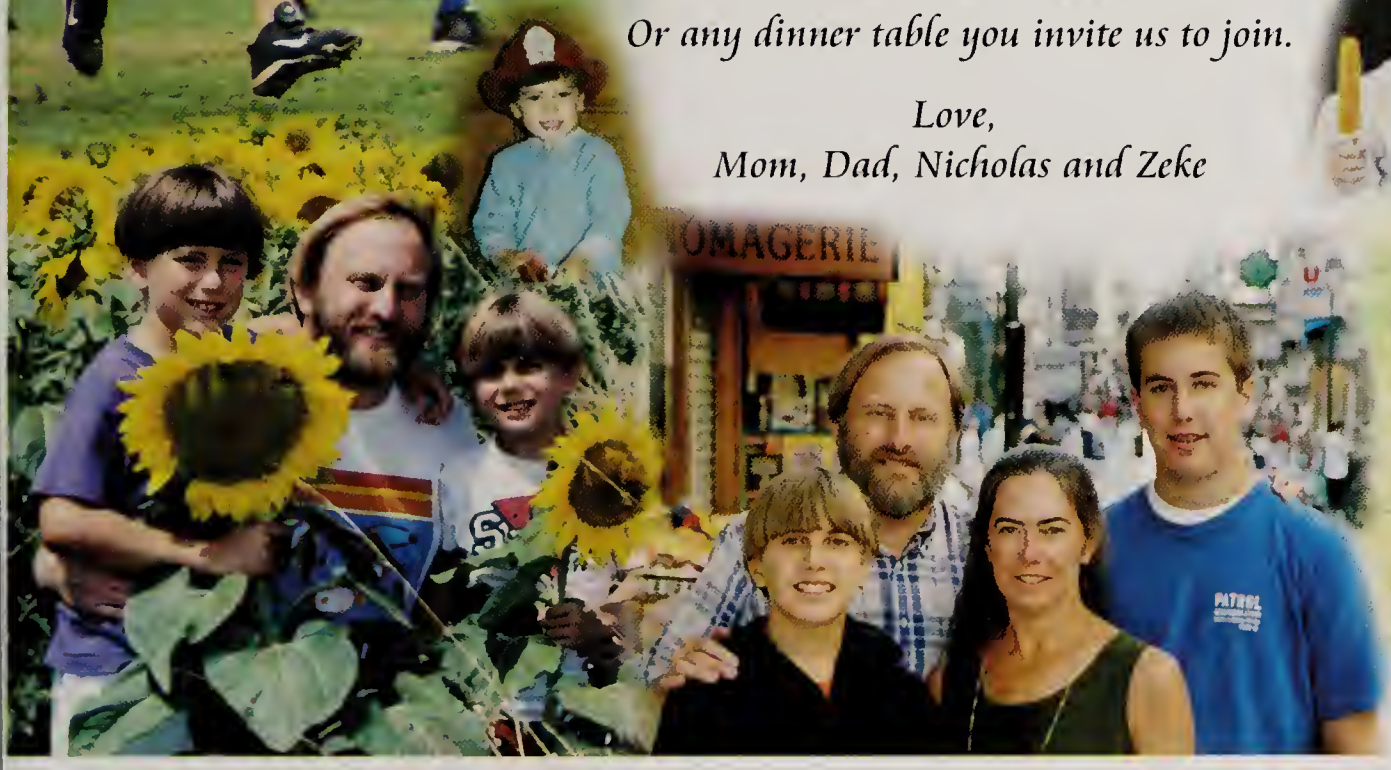
Seize the moment and open your eyes,
Take the risks to explore new terrain,
Remember your patience as challenges unfold
Keep your commitments, live your values.

Always leave room in your life for
The musical notes of the trumpet,
The art of the camera,
The tension of the tennis racket,
The edge of the skis,
And the speed of the lacrosse stick.

Sacred family times
Will always be treasured,
Whether it's around our dinner table
Or any dinner table you invite us to join.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Nicholas and Zeke



Liz

Dearest Liz,

What do we say to the one who completes our family?
How do we congratulate you on all your accomplishments?
Where do we start?

You're everything we wish we could be.
You're unfailingly committed,
trustworthy, honest, and kind.
No one we know tries harder at anything.

You are the best daughter, sister, granddaughter, and friend anyone could imagine.

You find the garnet in the glacier,
the perfect shell on the beach,
the best tent on the river trip,
and the back of the rim.

Your sense of fairness transcends any game;
your positive attitude boosts any situation.

You are forever our Elizabee,
Our eye patch pal,
the shell seeker,
Dad's Halloween buddy,
the Barbie Bag Queen,
Skippy's protector,
Frodo's savior,
and Maverick's all time favorite.

Don't let anyone else choose your identity for you–
you know what's best.

Remember to take us with you in your heart
wherever you go.
You know we'll be cheering for you,
thinking of you, and loving you always!

"Keep your face to the sunshine, and you cannot see the shadow."

Twenty-Seven (27)

Twenty-Seven is a time for being,
Each choice seems near immobilized with meaning,
Nor does one dare indulge the drift of dreaming,
Through younger days of love so worth seeing.

Some mornings you'll be young again and sailing,
Viewing fields you've played upon, so daring,
Even to recall one special day,
Nothing told your heart what it must say.

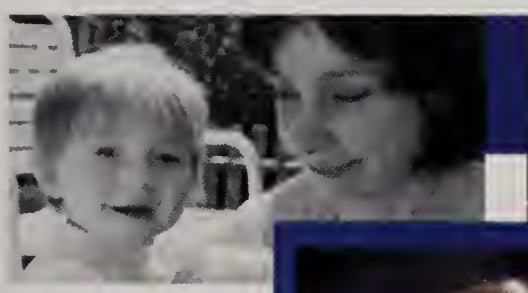
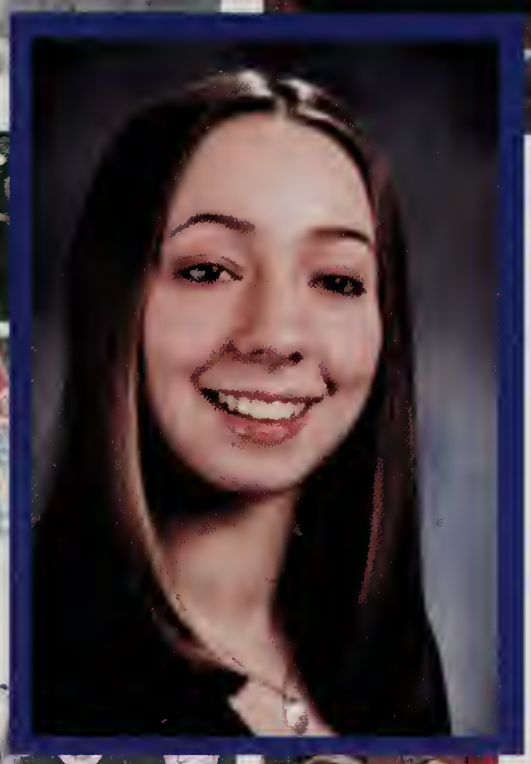
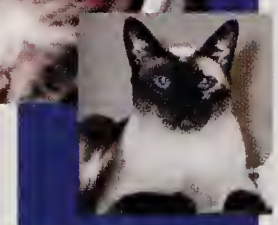
Boomer- your joy in life, fun-loving personality and your sincerity make you not only a wonderful son but a wonderful friend. You have made us proud of you every day of your life. Never change! You're the greatest! Love, Mom and Dad

Boom- We like to think that when we were young our occasional battles developed your wrestling skills, coercing you into make-believe games brought out your acting skills, and our time spent making Creepy Crawlers sparked your interest in science. but the truth is, you have made yourself into the amazing guy that you are and we know there's only more success ahead of you. We love you! "You are the best brother we could ask for!"
Jules and Carrie







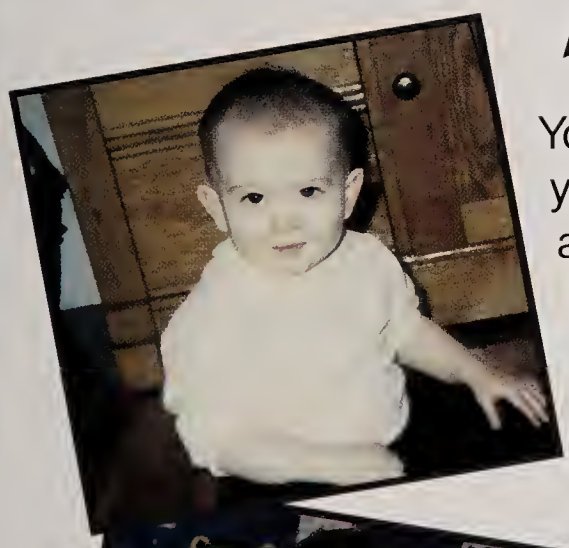
Dearest Ariel, we've been so lucky to enjoy your adventures growing up and to watch you develop your grace, wit and wisdom, integrity and intellect.

Now that you are moving on, we wish you challenges that inspire you, a career that you enjoy, new friends to stand beside the old, a husband who is your best friend,,and children who are as lovable as you.

May the road rise up to greet you....

With much love, Mom, Dad and Nate

Benjamin Shea Smith



You made it!!! Congratulations! Next year you'll be on your own but remember we'll always be here for you. We'll miss your loyalty, wit and insight. Your courage is an inspiration every day. Remember to be kind to a friend but take care of yourself too. Life will be open before you; may you find love, wisdom and fulfillment.
